

Annex

Information on the Distinguished Chinese Language Teachers Awards 2022 winners (not in order of merit)

Name of recipient	Information	Citation
Ms Ong Suan Hong, (王瑄凤) 	Woodlands Primary School Teaching experience: 28 years	Ms Ong follows her aspiration of not giving up on her students who are lacking behind in their grades. She puts in effort to help these students regain their self-confidence, spends time understanding them, discovering and developing their strengths and helping them to improve along the way.

Mr Chew Chee Hong (周志鸿)

Woodgrove Primary School

Teaching experience: 20
years

As the head of his school's mother tongue department, Mr Chew leads a team to adopt innovative teaching methods, adding a series of Chinese-related activities to the school curriculum, from organising virtual exchange programmes with schools in China to getting students to participate in the production of radio podcasts, making it fun for his students to learn the Chinese language.

Mdm Du Huiying (杜慧颖)

Maha Bodhi School

Teaching experience: 14 years

Mdm Du is adept at incorporating Chinese culture into her teaching. With her rich knowledge of Chinese history and culture, as well as her familiarity with the school culture, she makes her Chinese classes lively and interesting, allowing students to appreciate the charm of traditional Chinese culture.

Mr Lam Jun Jie
James (蓝俊傑)

South View Primary School
Teaching experience: 8
years

Mr Lam sparks the enthusiasm of learning Chinese in his students and motivates them through organising interesting activities. As a senior Chinese teacher, he conducts “open concept” classes by inviting fellow teachers to sit in as observers and sharing with them his teaching pedagogies, and gathering their feedback to improve his teaching.

Mr Kang Xianbin (康 贤斌)

St. Patrick's School

Teaching experience: 13
years

Mr Kang is not just a mentor to his students, he is also a friend to them. He bridges the distance between his students and himself by engaging them in various activities, such as playing volleyball, sharing about fitness, and proactively engaging them through learning or helping them to overcome family difficulties. He is a dynamic teacher who is well loved by his students.

Ms Lim Siew Ly (林秀莉) 	Boon Lay Secondary School Teaching experience: 15 years	Ms Lim is a well-mannered and approachable teacher. Whenever her students encounter difficulties in learning and show a lack of confidence, she will offer to spend time with them and patiently encourage them to keep going.
Ms Charline Ang Li Shan (洪丽珊) 	Bukit View Secondary School Teaching experience: 12 years	Ms Ang is known to be gentle and kind, as well as a good listener to her students. She designs interesting classroom activities to engage her students, such as teaching them to produce their own e-book to cultivate their interests in learning Chinese.

Ms Jiang Bin (江滨)

Anglo-Chinese College

Junior

Teaching experience: 6
years

Ms Jiang always adopts a positive attitude and steps out of her comfort zone to incorporate other teaching subjects to enrich her students' learning experience. She piques her students' interest by designing innovative ways to learn the Chinese language through games, group discussions and encouraging healthy competition among students to achieve their learning goals.

